

Academic Program Review

Timeline 2023-2024

September

- Executive Director for Institutional Research and Effectiveness will launch an academic program review meeting: week two.
- Charge to academic programs.
- The new process and outline of academic program review and its components.
- Timelines.

November (mid-month)

- Progress report and update from programs.

January

- Academic program reviews are completed by programs.
- Each individual academic program review will be submitted to APRC.

March 1

- Academic programs are to respond to APRC's request, if any.

April 1

- Completed reviews are submitted to the Executive Director for Institutional Research and Effectiveness for preparation for Board of Trustees.

April 30th

- A report with the list of programs will be submitted to the Board of Trustees.

June 1

- A report will be sent to IBHE.
- A report will be posted on GSU's accreditation site for HLC.