ARTICLE 16

Section 1.

The Union and the Employer mutually agree that in the interest of efficient management and harmonious employee relations, it is desirable that meetings be held between Union representatives and administrative representatives of the Employer. Such meetings shall be requested at least seven (7) days in advance of the suggested date, by either party, by placing in writing a request to the other for a "labor-management conference" and expressly providing the agenda for such meeting. Such meetings and locations shall be mutually agreed to before being held, and the purpose of any such meeting shall be limited to:

- C. Notifying the Union of changes in non-bargaining conditions of employment contemplated by the Employer which may affect employees.
- D. Issues or problems arising from but not specifically addressed by the express -terms of the agreement that are of interest to unit employees and/or management.

Section 2.

It is expressly understood and agreed that such meetings shall be exclusive of the grievance procedure. Grievances being processed under the grievance procedure shall not be considered at "labor-management conferences" nor shall negotiations for the purpose of altering any or all of the terms of this agreement be carried on at such meetings.

Section 3.

When absence from work is required to attend "labor-management conferences", Union members shall, before leaving their work station, give reasonable notice to and receive approval from their supervisor in order to remain in pay status. Supervisors shall approve the absence except in emergency situations. Union members attending such conferences shall be limited to four (4), regardless of being in pay status or not. Employees other than the maximum of five as designated by the Union may attend any negotiating meeting on their own time and without pay.

ARTICLE 17
DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Section 1.

The Employer and the Union agree that in order to maintain effective and efficient operation of the University, all employees must perform their assigned task fully and efficiently, comply with rules of conduct which are prescribed by the University, and abide by generally accepted employment standards. Failure to meet these requirements may subject an employee to disciplinary action in accordance with the provisions of the State Universities Civil Service Statute and Rules. The guiding principle of disciplinary action will be to attempt to correct an employee's deficiencies so that the employee will satisfactorily meet the University's requirements.

Section 2.

Disciplinary action may be in the form of a verbal warning, a written reprimand, suspension from work without pay, or discharge. None of the above actions may be taken without just cause, and any employee shall have the right to be represented by the Union.

Section 3.

If the Employer has reasons to verbally warn an employee for a rules infraction, it should be accomplished in a manner not resulting in embarrassment to the employee, nor should it be conducted before other employees or in public and should be conducted only in the presence of appropriate management representatives and, if deemed necessary by the employee, a Union steward. The issuance of any verbal warning shall not be delayed for more than 24 hours due to the absence of a Union steward. The employee will be advised of the pertinent facts and accusations of the alleged infraction.

Section 4. Written Reprimand

For more serious or repeated cases of rule infractions, the employee will be advised of the pertinent facts, accusations and evidence if any, related to the alleged violation. The Supervisor will explain to the employee, in private, the correct and expected behavior. The Employee along with a Steward shall have the right to rebut any allegations.

If the Supervisor determines, following a discussion between the parties, that a written reprimand is warranted, such disciplinary action will be taken and recorded by memorandum from the Supervisor to the employee., a copy of which shall be forwarded to the Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee for filing and for authorization if required. The Employee and the Union Steward will receive a copy of said form.

Section 5. Suspension

Whenever an employee commits a most serious offense, violation or continued infraction, the supervisor shall recommend to the Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee that the employee be suspended; and in the case of a harmful or threatening infraction as determined by the Supervisor, the employee may be immediately but temporarily relieved of duties, prior to the supervisor making a recommendation for suspension.

Before taking any action, the supervisor shall verbally advise the employee of the committed infraction and recommendation for suspension and, counsel the employee on corrective behavior. The Supervisor must report any such action taken along with the recommendation for suspension to the Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee. The Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee upon an investigation and/or review of the matter, shall arrange a meeting between the employer, its representatives and the employee along with a Union Steward desired by the employee. The purpose of the meeting is to allow for a fuller presentation of the circumstances associated with the infraction, the recommendation for suspension as well as to allow rebuttal of the charges, by the employee. If the employee chooses not to attend the meeting, the recommended disciplinary action will go forward. The Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee shall then render a final decision on the suspension, including its duration and other conditions including if warranted, a lesser corrective action. Whenever a decision has been made to suspend an employee, a copy of the official Civil Service form shall be personally served when possible or sent via registered or certified mail to the employee at the last known address; a copy of such form will be forwarded to the Union office.

Section 6.

Upon determination that an employee is to be terminated (or suspended pending discharge), the employee may elect either the provisions for discharge and hearing incorporated in the State Universities Civil Service Statute and Rules or the procedure for Arbitration outlined in the collective bargaining agreement. If the employee elects to seek remedy through Civil Service (Merit Board) the employee will waive his/her right to arbitration. Similarly, if the employee elects to seek a remedy through grievance arbitration, the employee will waive his or her right to a Civil Service hearing. All other provisions of this Article, or civil service procedures pertaining to the civil service hearing procedure shall apply.

Section 7.

In the event of arrest of a bargaining unit employee by the Governors State University Department of Public Safety, such arrest shall not be processed under the Grievance and Arbitration Articles of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 18 GRIEVANCE

It is the intent of the parties to this agreement to use their individual and collective best efforts to promote and encourage the informal and prompt adjustment of any complaint which may arise between the Union or any member covered under this agreement and the Employer. Therefore, the parties agree that they shall use the procedures set forth in this Article for the resolution, strictly pursuant to the terms of this agreement, of all alleged violations to the terms or provisions of this agreement. If prior to filing a grievance there-under, or while a grievance proceeding is in progress, an employee seeks resolution of the matter in any other forum, whether administrative or judicial, the Employer shall have no further obligation to entertain or proceed further with the matter pursuant to this grievance procedure and the grievance shall be considered withdrawn from this process. This waiver shall not apply in cases alleging unlawful discrimination filed pursuant to existing laws with a body of competent jurisdiction.

For purposes of this grievance procedure, the following definitions shall be applicable. Grievant shall mean any of the following:

- A. an individual employee

- B. The Union representative and/or the employee may meet with the Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee for the purpose of resolving problems related to or arising out of the official interpretation and application of the State Universities Civil Service System Statutes and Rules, and/or the Board of Trustees regulations governing Civil Service Employees.

Every effort shall be made to clarify and resolve the dispute provided nothing in this agreement is contrary to the State Universities Civil Service System Statute and Rules, or the Board of Trustees Regulations.

Section 5. Grievance Procedure

Step 1. Within twelve (12) days following the date of the act or omission giving rise thereto, or the date on which the employee knew or reasonably should have known of such act or omission if that date is later, but in no event later than thirty (30) calendar days following any violation giving rise to the grievance, the grievant may submit a grievance to the appropriate Division Chairperson in University Colleges or first level Administrator in other departments. The Chairperson or Administrator shall first review the grievance and then personally discuss the issue with the grievant. Every effort shall be first made to conciliate the matter. The Chairperson or Administrator shall render a decision regarding settlement or denial of the grievance and shall forward that decision in writing to the grievant within seven (7) days following receipt of the grievance. The grievant retains the right to have a Union Steward and/or Business Agent present at any discussion between the grievant and the Chairperson or Administrator.

Step 3. Should the grievance not be resolved in Step 2, to the mutual satisfaction of the parties, the grievant shall submit the grievance to the Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee within five (5) days following receipt of the Unit Head's response. The Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee shall first review and investigate the grievance and the history of actions taken in Step 1 and 2 and then personally discuss the issue with the grievant and the Steward and/or Business Agent. Every effort shall be first made to conciliate the matter. The Associate Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designee shall render a decision regarding the settlement or denial of the grievance and shall forward that decision in writing to the grievant within fifteen (15) days following receipt of the grievance. The Employer shall forward a copy of the decision to the Union office.

Section 6. Limits

A. Failure to respond by the Employer's representative at any step does not find in favor of the grievant but automatically allows for the advancement of the grievance to the next step of the grievance procedure.

B. Should the grievant at any step fail to timely file a grievance, the Employer shall be permitted to deny the grievance and request for remedy.

C. Should the grievant fail to properly complete the grievance form, the Employer shall be permitted to officially refuse acceptance of the grievance form and the employee shall be permitted to resubmit the form within five (5) days of being notified by the Employer of the form's unacceptability.

D. With the exception of Step 1, the time limits for the submission of a grievance at any other step may be extended for an additional number of days as assigned to the Step upon

Section 2. Selection

The Employer and the Union agree that the arbitrator shall be selected in the following manner:

A. The union shall request from the American Arbitration Association a list consisting of seven (7) names of suggested arbitrators, a copy of which will be mailed to the Employer. Upon receipt of such list, and within five (5) days thereafter, the Union shall request a meeting with the Employer to undertake the process of selecting an arbitrator; the meeting for selecting an arbitrator will be scheduled within fourteen (14) days following the request.

B. The selection process requires that each party beginning with the Union, to alternately strike one (1) name off the list until only one name remains. The last remaining name shall then be jointly submitted to the American Arbitration Association for assignment to the case. Failure of the selected arbitrator to accept or undertake the case shall result in the two parties repeating the process as defined in this Section.

C. The arbitrator shall commence the arbitration proceedings on a date, time, and place agreed to by the arbitrator, Union, and the Employer, but in no event shall it be delayed beyond sixty (60) days following acceptance of the case by the arbitrator.

D. A final written decision shall be submitted by the arbitrator to the parties no later than thirty (30) calendar days following the conclusion of the hearing.

E. Any arbitration conducted under this Article shall be in accordance with the voluntary rules of the American Arbitration Association. In the event of any conflict between said rules and this Article, the provisions of this Article shall prevail.

Section 3. Authority

The arbitrator shall limit his review to the specific issue(s) submitted for arbitration and shall have no right or authority to change this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to, in whole or in part, amend, modify, delete, add to, or disregard any of the express provisions or terms of this Agreement.
