

Leadership Dialogues

The 2009 Leadership Dialogues

series travels through the lives of historic and contemporary leaders with an emphasis on the skills, styles, and traits that made them extraordinary and successful.

Sponsored by the Metropolitan Institute for Leadership in Education (MILE) at Governors State University.

The Endurance: Shackleton's Legendary Antarctic Expedition

Facilitator: Dr. Paul Craig
January 24
8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Hall of Governors

Join a thought-provoking discussion of leadership and courage as exemplified by explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton, whose 1914 expedition traversing the Antarctic continent yields timeless insight into leadership in adversity. Participants are asked to read The Endurance: Shackleton's Legendary Antarctic Expedition by Caroline Alexander or be familiar with the topic.

There is no charge to participate in the Leadership Dialogues.

Lunch is included.

Advance registration is required.
708.534.4024

Leadership the Eleanor Roosevelt Way: Timeless Strategies from the First Lady of Courage

Facilitator: Dr. Judy Everson
March 21
8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Hall of Governors

The true story of how Eleanor Roosevelt overcame the psychological burden of a critical mother, a domineering mother-in-law, and a philandering husband to become the most influential first lady in history is discussed. Participants are asked to read Leadership the Eleanor Roosevelt Way by Robin Gerber or be familiar with the topic.

Governors State University
1 University Parkway
University Park, IL 60466