

HONORS SEMINAR IN ROME

May 22-June 12, 2018

Course: HONS 4900 Honors Seminar: Transformational Leadership course

Faculty Leader: Dr. David Rhea

Staff Leader: Amy Schoenberg

The program will explore modern theory and practice of leadership in the context of Ancient Roman, Renaissance, and Papal leaders. This study abroad experience also includes free travel weekends for students to develop their leadership skills and practices beyond Rome and throughout Europe.

Program Fee: $3,850

Included: international airfare, housing in student apartments, cultural tours and sightseeing activities in Rome and Florence, overnight field trip to Florence, three group meals, The American University of Rome facilities, international health insurance

Not included: Tuition & Fees, meals, activities during free time, personal items

Application & $500 Deposit Deadline: December 1st, 2017

Study Abroad Scholarship Deadline: November 15 & February 15

If you are interested, please contact Dr. David Rhea, Honors Program Director (drhea@govst.edu) or Amy Schoenberg, Study Abroad Coordinator (aschoenberg@govst.edu).

Check out our Facebook page from our abroad trip in Rome from 2017!

<https://www.facebook.com/GSUHonorsAbroad/>

1 University Parkway, University Park, IL 60484