

Direct Deposit of Refunds Available in myGSU Portal

We are pleased to inform you that refunds from the university (including Financial Aid advances and other refunds) can be deposited directly into your designated bank account.

In order to take advantage of this easy and fast refund process, it is important that you provide your banking information as requested in this announcement. The university will be using this information to direct deposit any refunds to which you are entitled -- and for no other purpose.

FAQs

A. How do I provide or update my bank information in the myGSU portal?

1. Log into the myGSU portal at <http://mygsu.govst.edu>
2. Click on Online Services and select Financial Information
3. Click on Bank Information (U.S.)
4. Enter your banking information, including account and routing numbers
5. Read and select I Agree to the Terms and Conditions
6. Click on the Submit button
7. You will receive an email confirmation that your submission was recorded.

B. How long does it take me to provide or update my banking information?

It takes less than five minutes to update your banking information.

C. Is my banking information secure?

Yes, GSU uses state-of-the-art technology to ensure that your personal information and confidential transactions remain safe, secure and private. GSU provides a secure socket layer to send and receive data over the internet using encryption capabilities to prevent third parties from accessing your information.

D. What if I previously signed up for direct deposit of Financial Aid advances or refunds?

You do not need to do anything unless your banking information has changed; then you must update your banking information in myGSU portal.

E. What if I don't have a bank account?

You may be able to open an account at any bank; however, GSU's banking partner First Midwest Bank will open an account for you.
