

Jeremy Joyce is a current student at Governors State University studying Business Administration with a concentration in Finance with a minor in Management. Jeremy works on campus as an Orientation Coordinator Assistant in the Academic Resource Center, and off campus as a Crew Chief at the Culvers in Matteson, IL. He also serves the campus in many student leadership roles such as an active member on the Program Council and as a participant in the Student Leadership Institute. He also contributes to many GSU programs and events to help enrich the student experience. He is also very excited to see the freshman come to campus and mentor them their entire first year.

Prior to attending Governors State University, Jeremy graduated with his associate's degree from Prairie State College (PSC). At PSC, he served as a student member for the Protégé Program as a treasurer. After graduating in May 2015, Jeremy plans to seek a MBA and work in Corporate Finance.
