

Peace Circles Facilitator Training

Build Healthy Relationships and Community

Reduce Conflict and Create More Peace

– in the home, at school and in the community. Restorative Justice values build relationships based on trust, inclusivity, shared community resources and positive outcomes.

Become a certified Peace Circle Facilitator

Develop the skills and strategies needed to implement and apply restorative justice practices by becoming a certified Peace Circle Facilitator. Dr. Jane Nicholson, of Governors State University, presents Restorative Circles Facilitator training for open and meaningful discussions, building and restoring relationships and solving problems.
