

BIO

Renee Crews

Renee Crews is a mother (and stepmother) of four, wife of one, and leader of many who has a passion for helping people define and refine their message for optimum results.

Renee grew up in Park Forest, Illinois. She majored in Musical Theatre and Vocal Performance at Roosevelt University in Chicago, Illinois. She later moved to Governors State University where she received her B.A. in Liberal Arts with a Communications focus.

Renee presently serves as President-Elect of the Orland Park Area Chamber of Commerce where she is Chair of the Program Committee and Co-Chair of a “Youth in Business” initiative. Also, she was awarded “Area Governor of the Year” in the Chicago Metro Area by Toastmasters International where she has also won several speech contests.

She is CEO/Founder of Metamorphosis, a Communications Training firm that specializes in helping leaders articulate their messages to various audiences throughout the country. Her passionate topics are communications, public speaking, retail (including establishment ownership experience), customer service, sales, and fundraising/ non-profit development.

Renee’s additional passions include composing songs on the piano, singing professionally, and motivating others to see the potential that lies within.