Campus Resources Quiz

1) I need help with my writing organization…Where can I go to find someone to look over my essay? _________________________

2) I need help with math and science tutoring…What website can I visit to schedule a one-on-one tutoring session for up to an hour? _________________________

3) Where can I go to get help with resume/cover letter organization?…I am also interested in finding out some job search strategies that can possibly get me closer to finding that internship/career that I am looking for. What is this resource called? _________________________

4) I know someone that is seeking some support because he is stressed out and depressed from personal matters. Who can I direct this person to so they can get the help they need? _________________________

5) I’m everywhere on campus, all the time, making sure everything’s fine. _________________________

6) Got a Title IX concern & don’t know where to turn? I can lend you an ear. _________________________

7) I’m here to help meet your most basic needs. _________________________

8) I’m open every Tuesday from 12pm-5pm…feeding the need to give & receive. _________________________

9) I’m open later than most banks, Mon. - Thurs. 8:30am to 7pm, & Friday 8:30am to 5pm… because I know your money matters. _________________________

10) Technically, I’m the central point for connectivity. _________________________