

Advising Guides for Freshman & Sophomores

Bachelor of Health Science in Community Health

Students may choose any cohort with this major. Refer to the document “General Education Requirements for Freshman and Sophomore Cohorts” for details on the required general education courses for each cohort. All cohort courses must be taken at Governors State University. Students with Advanced Placement or other approved transfer and early college coursework will receive credit for general electives. Students who are considering the ‘Pre-Health Professions’ should work notify their academic advisor as early in the program as possible.
