

Accounting Resource Guide

American Accounting Association - <http://aaahq.org>

The American Accounting Association website features access to accounting publications and the latest research. Further resources and access to publications are available by membership; college students are given a discounted rate.

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants - <http://www.aicpa.org>

Official website for the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. AICPA members represent many areas of practice, including business and industry, public practice, government, education and consulting. Many accounting links are established on this page and current issues and accounting standards are also discussed.

Accounting.com - <http://www.accounting.com>

Website was founded in response to the growing need for qualified accountants in both the domestic and international labor force. Content addresses education, employment, licensure and regulations, and also hosts an accounting job board designed to connect qualified professionals to a wide range of employers, both large and small.

The Institute of Internal Auditors - <http://www.theiia.org>

The Institute of Internal Auditors is the internal audit profession's global voice, recognized authority, acknowledged leader, chief advocate, and principal educator. Members work in internal auditing, risk management, governance, internal control, information technology audit, education, and security. Further resources and access to publications are available by membership; college students are given a discounted rate.

Financial Accounting Standards Board - <http://www.fasb.org>

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) is the designated organization for the private sector for establishing standards of financial accounting that govern the preparation of financial reports by nongovernmental organizations. The latest news on financial accounting standards and new organizational positions are updated frequently for review.

Accounting Career Network - <http://www.searchaccountingjobs.com>

National network of independent executive recruiters specializing in connecting accounting, audit and tax professionals with leading companies nationwide. Professionals can create a free account, upload a confidential resume, search for jobs, directly contact top accounting recruiters working in their specialty and geographic location and much more.