

Artistic Careers Resource Guide

The following websites include sites of interest for those interested in artistic careers in areas such as photography, design and fine arts.

<http://www.khake.com/page42.html>

This website pages covers many types of artistic career choices and also gives examples of related secondary career choices with explanations of working conditions.

http://www.cln.org/themes/careers\_art.html

The “Careers in the Arts Theme Page” website provides many links for those interested in working in the arts. Examples include websites that feature over 50 types of careers that are available.

<http://photography.about.com/>

Website features a free photography newsletter, as well as many links related to topics in photography; all conveniently located for anyone with a shutterbug interest.

<http://www.photographyschools.com/>

At photographyschools.com, learn about educational opportunities all over the country and gain valuable insights into your field.

http://www.chicagoataglance.com/chnl\_photography.htm

The Chicago at a glance website has an entire section devoted to Chicago photography and listings of local photographers.

<http://www.fineartsguild.com/>

The fineartsguild.com is a sanctuary for like-minded artists who need a place to post their art and to network with other Chicago artists.

<http://www.artjob.org/>

This website offers up to date national listings for jobs in the arts field; as well as, professional opportunities in all areas of the arts.

<http://www.princetonol.com/groups/iad/jobs/openings.html>

This website is a multifaceted resource for individuals interested in working in the field of art education; as well as, parents and teachers interested in art education.

www.artcareer.net

This website is an insightful and easy to use resource for individuals interested in working and growing in the field of visual arts.

