

Intellectual Life Committee

in conjunction with the Governors State University

Physical Therapy Program

presents

I AM A ZEBRA

A Curiously Entertaining Story of Illness

Created and Performed by Ingrid Masterton

Directed by Anne Marie Scheffler

November 15, 2017

4:30 p.m.

Sherman Hall

Free Performance

Join Ingrid on a journey of trials met with humor, pain muted by joy, and the absurd kind of amusement that only the world of medicine could provide. Have fun with her as she tries to discover how she'll next use her peculiar identity to do the reinvention that illness demands.