

Artistic Careers Resource Guide

The Art Career Project - <http://www.theartcareerproject.com>

Provides a concise overview of art careers as well as what each type of artist does, where they work, and how to get started. By learning as much as you can about your intended art career and others like it, you are better preparing yourself for success

American Institute of Graphic Arts - <http://www.aiga.org>

The American Institute of Graphic Arts (AIGA) connects practitioners, enthusiasts and patrons through regional, national and global events and by creating content that defines global standards and ethical practices, guides design education, enhances professional development and makes powerful tools and resources accessible to all.

Creative Circle - <https://www.creativecircle.com>

Creative Circle is a specialized staffing agency that connects innovative advertising, marketing, creative, and interactive professionals with companies seeking talent on a full-time or freelance basis. There is also a community section that is a place to learn more about other professionals in the network, as well as their likes, hobbies and passions.

Theatre in Chicago - <http://www.theatreinchicago.com>

The goal of Theatre in Chicago is to be a one-place-stop to find out all the happenings on the stages in the Chicago area, including auditions, and to support Chicago live theatre and the theatrical arts.

The Spruce Crafts - <https://www.thesprucecrafts.com/photography-4162939>

Website features a free photography newsletter, as well as many links related to topics in photography; all conveniently located for anyone with a shutterbug interest.

The Art Career Project Photography Schools - <https://theartcareerproject.com/photography-schools/>

Directory of photography schools and colleges; lists top photography programs offering Master's degrees in photography and digital photography. Learn about educational opportunities all over the country and gain valuable insights into the field.