Governors State
U N I V E R S I T Y

Information Technology Resource Guide

https://www.comptia.org/
The CompTIA website is a good place to get the latest updates on what new events are occurring in the field and an excellent place to polish networking skills.

http://www.itmweb.com/
The Information Technology resources pages offers many different items of interest, such as the latest information on software and updated newsletters.

https://aitpchicago.com/
The Association of Information Technology Professionals covers information on relevant IT issues. Job opportunity leads and newsletters, to name a few resources, are also available.

https://www.informationweek.com/
This site offers the latest news updates, product knowledge and articles for IT professionals.

http://www.lita.org/
The Library and Information Technology page is a part of the American Library Association and offers job opportunities and the latest information about focusing in this field.

http://information-technology.careerbuilder.com/
Career Builder.com list job opportunities for entry-level positions in various areas such as IT management and consulting. Positions are located throughout the country.

https://www.usaid.gov/innovation-technology-research
The USAid Information Technology page has an incredible amount of information. Job opportunities, internships and private contracts around the world are available.

https://ncwit.org/
The Center for Women and Information Technology website is devoted in helping women to become more represented in the IT field, including job opportunities.

http://www.dice.com/
Dice.com offers opportunities for students to post their resume for thousands of potential jobs. Other valuable resources, such as salary reviews and updated articles of interest are also included at this site.