

Attendees: Karen Cook, Kyle Sims, Carolina Cantieri, Kylie Goss, Joe Mounce, Judy Brown, Jennifer Houser

Hybrid In person and virtual meeting for March @ AOP

Updates and Introduction

- Prevention- reach out to schools, libraries and obtain feedback on books, see if they would want any additional materials/books
- Joe and Jennifer- our new Recovery Navigators! Provide support for clients to help bridge the gap between treatment and recovery
- Judy- concerned about lack of Al-Anon support in Coles Co. looking to start up a meeting (is in contact with a friend)
- Thursday @ 7pm- First Presbyterian Church Al-Anon Meeting
- Kyle Sims (LLC)- 1st of Month GED Orientation Classes for Clients:
  - Tuesday March 1st- Effingham (9 am/ 4pm)
  - Wednesday, March 2nd, Mattoon (9am/4pm)
  - Thursday, March 3rd, Pana (9am/4pm)
  - Monday, March 7th, Marshall (4pm)
- New Recovery Home Duplex that can house 7 men, Demario Isaac is the Founder.

Health Fair:

- Pop up booth for ROSC/Prevention provide educational resources on Substance Use with brochures, emergency resource guides, treatment guides
- Partner with stakeholders in community
- Make it easily accessible for community members
  - <https://www.lakelandcollege.edu/news/lake-land-college-to-hold-health-careerx-college-fair/>
  - EIU- update: hoping to start planning in summer for a fair in the Fall

Collaboration with Chestnut:

- Hidden in plain sight- Offer a drive through event for harm reduction and prevention
- Possibly Summer
- ROSC/ Chestnut/ Prevention

Barriers / addressing weaknesses:

- Dentist office
- Online or In-person Meeting list
- List of housing
- Update local recovery meeting list
- Reach out to Newspaper for support

