

Drug Endangered Children & Human Trafficking Training

This free training aims to educate community members on how a child's caregiver's substance use addiction can impact a child's life and what familial human trafficking looks like in rural communities. Both trainers have been trained through the National Alliance for Drug Endangered Children.

Recommended for law enforcement, medical personnel, school staff, and anyone who comes into contact with children! Open to the community!

To register
please scan
QR code.

Light
refreshments available!

For more information, please contact
Leanna Morgan, ROSC Coordinator
email: leannm@hourhouserecovery.org

Zoom link available to those unable to attend in person

25 APRIL 2023

5:00 pm – 7:00 pm

North Ward Elementary
1201 N. Prairie, Tuscola IL

Liesl Wingert

SIU School of Medicine

Brad Ameter

Richland County
Sheriff's Dept.

