Samantha Brown

Fifth Street Renaissance

CORS Lead Peer Recovery Specialist

Fifth Street Renaissance

Dedicated to offering safe housing, essential resources, and personalized support to individuals and families in Springfield, empowering them to regain stability, independence, and a brighter future.

Our Story

Fifth Street Renaissance, founded in 1979, began by weatherproofing homes for low-income and elderly residents. It expanded to provide housing and support for the homeless, and in 2006 merged with the SARA Center to offer care and advocacy for those affected by HIV/AIDS. Today, the organization continues to support Springfield's most vulnerable through compassionate care and housing services.

Transitional Housing Program

In existence since 1986, our transitional housing program provides male and female individuals with single room living quarters and comprehensive services to enable them to become independent, productive members of society. Clients are required to work with the case manager to identify and address barriers to independent living. Issues addressed include, but are not limited to, substance abuse, violence, life skills, budgeting and financial responsibility, mental and physical health, employment, education, and developing a healthy support network. Residents may participate in transitional housing for up to 18 months before moving to permanent housing.

Housing Advocacy Service (Norman Program)

This program is contracted through the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services. A housing specialist works with families who are at risk of losing custody of their children due to homelessness or near homelessness, to find safe, affordable housing and keep the family unit intact. Supportive services are provided to help the family address the issues that brought them to this crisis and to help to stabilize them before, during and after housing placement.

Illinois Statewide Housing (ISHOP)

This program is provided in the lower 55 counties of Illinois and offers crucial support to ensure housing stability and overall well-being for persons living with HIV. This comprehensive program provides a wide range of assistance, including housing referrals, help with rent, security deposits, mortgage payments, and utility assistance, tailored to meet the unique needs of each participant. ISHOP is designed to offer both short-term and long-term support, recognizing that stability and security are key to managing health and quality of life.

Project Based Permanent Supportive Housing Program

This program offers permanent housing units to individuals and families living with a disabling condition (primarily HIV). Tenants are approved through the SHA and rent is calculated based on income as the units have Section 8 vouchers attached to them. Individuals living in permanent housing are afforded a multitude of services including case management, advocacy and other supportive services.

Community Based Permanent Housing Program (PSH)

The same services as our project based permanent housing except apartments are located throughout the community and serve those who are homeless or chronically homeless and HIV+ individuals or disabled individuals and families.

Cook Street Renaissance

A 19-unit apartment complex providing affordable housing to low and extremely low-income, often disabled individuals. The program also offers other support services to foster stability including case management, life skills groups, HIV awareness education, free safe sex kits, food and household pantry, transportation and access to other community services through the referral process.

Reintegration Project

The Reintegration Project assists individuals who have been released from the Illinois Department of Corrections, Federal Bureau of Prisons facilities or County/City Jails and are HIV+. The program works to identify and secure housing as well as health and social services for the individual and their drug or sex sharing partners to prevent the spread of HIV, enable them to lead more productive lives, reduce recidivism to incarceration and develop a “continuity of care” service and referral system for the clients.

Rapid Re-Housing

The primary goal of the RRH program is to reduce the duration of homelessness and help participants achieve long-term housing stability through the provision of financial assistance and case management. The program is designed to be a short- to medium-term intervention, with a focus on empowering participants to maintain housing independently after the assistance ends

HIV/AIDS Testing, Outreach, and Education

On-site HIV/AIDS education, counseling and testing is offered from 9am-3pm, Monday through Friday or by appointment at the administrative offices and weekly at the Sangamon County Jail, Moultrie County Jail and Shelby County Jail. These services are also offered at various other outreach events and satellite locations, and upon request.

Wellness on Wheels (WOW)

This statewide program delivers comprehensive health services and education, focusing on HIV, Hepatitis C, Gonorrhea, and Chlamydia counseling and testing, alongside overdose prevention with Nasal Narcan, and the distribution and training for Fentanyl and Xylazine test strips. WOW also offers blood pressure, glucose, and cholesterol screenings, Risk Reduction Counseling with safer sex supplies, and Harm Reduction Counseling with safer use supplies. Additionally, the program provides Covid home test kits, face masks, hand sanitizer, hygiene kits, and referrals to improve quality of life and curb the spread of HIV and other communicable diseases. Operating seven days a week, including weekends, evenings, and late-night hours, WOW reaches underserved areas and communities where high-risk behaviors, such as drug use and sexual activity, are prevalent. Often mobilized by the Illinois Department of Public Health's Center for Minority Health Services, this program also plays a crucial role during public health crises like Covid-19 and other health outbreaks.

CORS Program

The Community Outreach Recovery Support (CORS) Program is designed to assist individuals experiencing Opioid use or addiction and focuses on providing comprehensive support to prevent overdose and promote recovery and long-term stability. The program offers Personalized Case Management, Behavioral Health Support, Peer Support and Mentorship, Community-Based Resources and Services; all with a focus on sustainable recovery
