Agency Updates

Josh Forbes opened the meeting, welcoming everyone and thanking them for attending. Introduced himself, and had everyone in attendance introduce themselves as well. Josh shared that today they had a Coles County Drug Court participant, Matt T., to give his testimony and his experience with the Drug Court Program.

Matt P.L.E Testimony

Matt started off by saying he has been on Drug Court for the last year, and he is currently on Phase 3.

He stated that within the last year his life has been turned around his kids are back in his life, and he's learned to be honest. He also stated he has taken up a leadership role as well. He has taken the roll of the trash pick-up coordinator. He mentioned the three rules of Drug Court are be honest, be on time, and do your best.

Q/A:

When asked by Mark; about graduation? He answered, there are two a year one in the fall and one in the spring.

When asked by Josh; How does drug court benefit a community? He answered, it has helped me become a productive member of society.

When asked by Sky; What happens if he successfully completes the program? He answered, all charges will be dismissed

Josh then thanked Matt for sharing and moved on to upcoming events.
