

Global Brigades Student Leadership

GRANT APPLICATION

Three $250 Grants are available to students attending the GSU Public Health Brigade program to Ghana for the purpose of coordinating three key areas that include: 1) group development 2) fundraising and 3) global brigade curriculum. Successful students will receive their grant upon completion of a campus program reflecting on the trip experience.

Time Commitment:

- Pre-Service Trip: Under the direction of faculty advisors, execute responsibility of leadership positions. (see description below).
- During Trip: Continue to execute leadership positions as needed.
- Post-Trip: Under the direction of the Office of International Services, host campus forum describing service-experience in Ghana.

All three students will collaborate on the following:

- Group Development: Plan and coordinate activities designed to build a strong team and develop and motivate group through the fundraising efforts and in planning for the program.
- Education: Responsible for facilitating and presenting the Pre-Brigade Curriculum, preparing group for reflection and education workshops during the brigade, and leading members during those reflections and education workshops presentations during brigade (alongside Faculty Advisors).
- Fundraising: Plan and coordinate fundraising events, reach out to corporate sponsors, and draft grant applications. Work with college/university to gain fullest possible support for Chapter.
