

Welcome to theNate!

The Nathan Manilow Sculpture Park, or theNate as we like to call it, is a collection of 30 master works of large-scale sculpture situated within 100 acres of prairie landscape. This "museum-in-the-prairie" is open for public viewing 365 days a year and is free of charge. The Park provides programs for adults and children that integrate art and nature. Although it is located on the campus of Governors State University, it was founded and is maintained through grants and donations from businesses and individuals.

Visitor Guidelines

Please follow these guidelines to make your visit to theNate even more enjoyable:

- Pets are welcome and must be leashed at all times.
- Parking is free, please park only in designated areas.
- Do not climb on the sculptures – they are not playground structures. They are works of art, just as you would find in an indoor art museum, and are subject to the same issues of deterioration – and they endure the vagaries of our harsh climate. Many of the works have already spent nearly half a century outdoors and are quite fragile. Please be gentle with our art.
- We want every visitor to be able to enjoy the same views you have experienced. Please do not pick our flowers or grasses. Recycle and dispose of trash in appropriate receptacles located near the buildings.
- Picnic tables are available from May through October on a patio overlooking the lake near the university's D-Wing
- Alcoholic beverages and smoking are strictly prohibited in the park.
- Swimming, fishing, and skating are not permitted in/on the ponds.

EMERGENCY:

In case of emergency, Dial 911 and tell the operator you are located in the Nathan Manilow Sculpture Park at Governors State University.

Book a Tour / Bring a Group

A guided walking tour can be scheduled with park staff and docents with a suggested donation of $10 per person. Civic organizations, clubs, schools, and tour companies have enjoyed bringing their members for a customized tour.

Outdoors@theNATE is a hands-on, interactive program designed to build awareness of visual thinking, address elements of the ISBE Standards and Goals for 4th and 5th grade, present artworks as part of a consideration of S.T.E.A.M. (Science, Technology, Engineering, ARTS, and Math) principles, and create a chance for contact among differing schools from across our region.

We need you to say: "I'm a Friend of Nate!"

On our website you will find a sign up form for our newsletter - please add your name to the growing list of those who say "I'm a Friend of Nate!" You see, we need to show a roster of supporters and funders when we apply for grants to keep our programs running, and because we are free and open 365 days a year from dawn to dusk, we can't track visitors by the usual methods such as ticket sales, or entry tallies. We are committed to remaining a free public resource, so please add your name to our roster and say: "I'm a Friend of Nate!"

NATHAN MANILOW SCULPTURE PARK

Metra Rail Connection
Millennium Park Station to University Park Station
www.metrarail.com

You can visit theNate by using the Metra Electric line from Millennium Park station in Chicago, to the University Park station, and an 8 minute walk to GSU's campus and theNate!

When you arrive at the University Park station, take a right turn at the bottom of the ramp and walk through the tunnel, up the exit ramp and stairs to the parking lot. Proceed through the parking area and out the entry driveway where you will see a pedestrian crossing on Stuenkel Road. This crossing connects you to the Alumni Path that will lead to GSU and theNate.

Mission of Park

Set within the prairie landscape of Governors State University, the Nathan Manilow Sculpture Park serves its constituency with distinctive educational outreach and original programming – encouraging an interdisciplinary understanding and appreciation of sculpture and art in contemporary life.
