

Opportunities for Students

- ▶ Paid Summer Research Internships for rising Juniors and Seniors – 5 openings, application is competitive. Applications due February 20th.
- ▶ Faculty Mentoring Opportunities
- ▶ Professional and Career Development Workshops

Benefits

- ▶ Network with faculty and researchers
- ▶ Build experience in the field of health and human services, specifically, cancer-related topics
- ▶ Build skills in writing and research
- ▶ Leadership opportunities within your community
- ▶ Strengthening your resume and skills as a student researcher
- ▶ Make a difference in your community by applying your much-needed knowledge and motivation through contributions to research!

Research Activities

- ▶ Attending workshops or conferences related to latest research
- ▶ Contributing to project team meetings
- ▶ Conducting literature reviews
- ▶ Recruiting or enrolling research participants
- ▶ Collecting, maintaining and/or analyzing data
- ▶ Preparing research reports or poster presentations with guidance
- ▶ Instituting health programs related to education, outreach and intervention

Application Process

- ▶ To join The GUIDE Project as a scholar: Send an email to kqustafson@govst.edu, and we will add you to our distribution list.
- ▶ To apply for the paid summer research institute: Send an email to kqustafson@govst.edu, and she will send you the application.
- ▶ Applications for the summer research program are due February 20th.

Contacts and Information

- ▶ <https://cancer.uillinois.edu/guide-project>
- ▶ www.govst.edu/chhs
- ▶ Project manager: kqustafson@govst.edu
- ▶ Principal investigators: cbalthazar@govst.edu, revans@govst.edu
- ▶ <https://news.uic.edu/ui-cancer-center-governors-state-to-address-cancer-disparities-in-south-suburbs>