

The courses in the Department of Nursing which are usually classified as hybrid will be taught mainly online due to the Covid 19 pandemic. Exceptions will be made when the class requires minimum face to face meetings, such as the final in the graduate health assessment course. The wearing of masks and the keeping of social distancing will be enforced. Of course, online courses will remain online.

Dr. Nancy MacMullen

Chair & Director Nursing