Public Health Measures for any on-campus instruction – on-campus instruction dates will be identified by the course instructor for each course. Dates will be provided to students in advance and are subject to change. On-campus instruction may be held in cohorts and/or partners and rotating schedules. Maximum room occupancy will be observed for social distancing.

Required measures include personal protective equipment (PPE), preventative hygiene (including frequent handwashing/handrubbing), social distancing unless hands-on contact is required for instruction/demonstration, or testing of student performance, temperature checks, screening survey, and frequent cleaning of equipment and high-touch surfaces. Students and faculty are encouraged to stay home if any signs of illness, temperature greater than 100.4 degrees, positive answer to any screening questions, known or confirmed exposure to COVID-19.

Please contact instructor and/or department chair with any questions or needs.

Date of Instruction - See course Blackboard shell and GSU email for specific course information.

Office Hours – course instructor office hours will be held virtually. Please see course syllabus for further information.

Student Advising and Class Meetings – Periodic/weekly Class Meetings and advising will be held for DPT 1 and DPT 2 students; meetings will be remote and conducted through Blackboard Collaborate Ultra. Schedule TBA. Students may contact their advisor or faculty for individual meetings.

Periodic Class Meetings and advising will be held for DPT 3 students; meetings will be remote and conducted through Blackboard Collaborate Ultra. Schedule TBA. Students may contact their advisor or faculty for individual meetings.
