

James E. Golding MSW, MHS, CAADC, CCJP, MAC

Education	1998-2000 Phoenix Community College, Phoenix AZ 2000 – 2002 Arizona State University, West Phoenix, AZ BA Psychology, BA Behavioral Science, Minor in Cultural Diversity 2003 – 2004 Governors State University, University Park, IL Masters in Health Science (Addiction Studies) 2005-2006 Governors State University Certificate, On-line teaching 2005 to 2010 Masters in Social Work
Awards Received	Certification in Cultural Diversity. Faculty Excellence Award, Governors State University, 2007.
Work Experience	9/01/05 to Present: Governors State University (Senior Lecturer), Addictions Studies Master Program 8/2010 Rio Salado College adjunct October, 2011 to present: Phoenix Behavioral Services 8/01/2011 to 12/05/2012: Behavioral Services Bensenville 9/2008 to 7/2011: Crossmont Associates DUI Counselor and DUI evaluator. 1/10/05-9/01/05: Gateway Foundation Lake Villa, IL (counselor II) 8/2004—1/05/05: Central Baptist Family Services Lake Villa, IL (Intern) 1/2004 –8/2004 Gateway Foundation Lake Villa IL (Intern)
Volunteer Experience	Safer Foundation — helping incarcerated males return to a healthy environment. 9/2006 to 4/2012 — IAAP (Illinois Chapter of NAADAC) board member 1/2012 to present — CORE Illinois Board member
Professional Memberships	NASW: National Association of Social Workers IAODAPCA: Illinois Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Professional Certification Association NAADAC: The Association for Addiction Professionals
Accreditations and Licenses	Certification Reciprocal for Alcohol and Drugs Counselor: CAADC Number 23753. Certified Criminal Justice Addiction Professional: CCJP Number 25540. Master Addiction Counselor Number 507279 and DASA DUI Service Provider Training.

Recovery Coach (DASA funded).
Domestic Violence Victim 40-hour Training, Abuser Intervention
Facilitator.