GRANTS

AY20/21

Program Pilot Project (Cheng) 09/01/2020 – 08/31/2021
CASTOR at University of Michigan & Georgetown University $40,000

Impact of Prohibiting Characterizing Flavors on Nicotine Vaping Products

This project is to produce evidence to inform FDA's impact assessments of prohibiting characterizing flavors by assessing the impact of characterizing flavor ban on use, discontinued use, and switching between products by exploring how the current characterizing flavor ban affects sales, purchasing, and use of restricted flavored and unrestricted non-flavored nicotine products.

AY 20/21, AY 19/20

5P01CA200512-02 (Cummings & Fong) 04/19/2016 – 03/31/2021
NIH/NCI (flow through MUSC) $13,125 per year

Evaluating How Tobacco Control Policies are Shaping the Nicotine Delivery Market

The proposed Program Project presents an innovative and integrated set of studies that will fill this gap by contributing high impact science and novel research methods useful for evaluating how the evolving VNP marketplace and tobacco control policy environment are impacting individuals and population health outcomes.

Role: Co-I; Project 1

MOP-115016 (Fong & Cheng) 08/01/2018 – 03/31/2025
Canadian Institute of Health Research $17,382 per year
(Flow through UW)

ITC Policy Evaluation Project

The purpose of this project is to evaluate the impact of WHO framework convention on tobacco with an emphasis on low and middle-income countries.

Role: Co-I

Program Pilot Project (Cheng) 03/01/2019 – 02/28/2020
Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) $15,000

Impact of vape-free air law on e-cigarette use and sales in the US

This proposed project will take advantage of vape-free air policy variations in localities and compare sales of ECs and cigarettes between areas where EC use is restricted and those where it is not. Further, using individual-level ITC 4CV data, I will study impacts of vape-free air policies on EC use, EC and cigarette dual use, complete switch to ECs, and smoking cessation.

Role: PI

Grants received prior to AY19/20

Carter Consulting Inc., (Chaloupka) 12/01/2016 – 09/27/2017
Phase 4: OSH Analysis of State Expenditures and Nielsen Research Data Analysis

To provide on-going support to CDC's Office on Smoking and Health on issues related to tobacco control/smoking cessation policies and procedures by addressing state specific activities.

Role: Senior Scientist

Carter Consulting Inc., (Chaloupka) 12/01/2016 – 09/27/2017

Monitoring the Future

The purpose of this project is to conduct the analysis to assess impacts of industry electronic cigarette TV ads on EVP product use and prices for disposable and reusable electronic cigarettes on the use of e-cigarettes among adolescents and e-cigarette sales.

Role: Senior Scientist

1P50DDA036128 (Chaloupka) 09/01/2013 – 08/31/2018

FDA

The Science of Decision Making: Connecting People and Policy.

UIC's RO1 is entitled "Enhancing the Economic Impact Analysis used in FDA's Rules for Tobacco Products".

The purpose of this project is to produce new evidence that will inform and refine the FDA's economic impact assessments of future proposed rules.

Role: Co-Investigator

FDN-148477 (Fong & Shang) 4/1/2017-6/30/2018

CIHR

The International Tobacco Control Policy Evaluation Project- Economic Analysis

The purpose of this project is to conduct economic analysis using the International Tobacco Control Policy Evaluation Project data from many countries.

Role: Co-Investigator

Program Project Pilot Project (Cheng) 03/01/2017 – 02/28/2018

NIH/NCI

U.S. Demand for Electronic Cigarettes

The major goals of this project are that we hypothesize that an increase in cigarette prices would increase e-cigarette use, and cigarette smoking restrictions in public places would increase e-cigarette use. Our results have policy implications on e-cigarette demand-side response of potential policies on pricing and smoke-free regulations.

Role: PI
