

Andrae M. Marak
amarak@govst.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Latin American Studies (Political Science and History), University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico, 2000
M.A. Political Science, Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York, 1995
B.A. Political Science, Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 1993

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Twelve years of administrative experience
- Co-PI, “War, Trauma, and the Humanities,” Dialogues on the Experience of War, NEH, $100,000, 2017-2018
- Vice President, Advisory Board, Making History Project, 2017 to Present
- Executive Committee, Mexico Section, Latin American Studies Association, 2015 to Present
- Peer Reviewer, Open and Standard Pathways, Higher Learning Commission, 2014 to Present
- Contributing Editor, The Middle Ground Journal: World History and Global Studies, 2012 to Present
- Member, Executive Board, Midwest World History Association (MWWHA), 2012 to Present
- Commissioner, Human Rights Commission, Columbus, Indiana, 2011 to 2012
- President, Bartholomew County Historical Society, 2011 to 2012
- Presidential Gala Faculty Award for Research, Cal U, 2010
- Fulbright-Robles-García Dissertation Fellowship, United States Information Agency and Mexican Government, 1999 to 2000

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Governors State University, July 2016 to Present (Note: first 10 months were served in as an Interim Dean)

Chair, Division of Humanities and Social Sciences, Governors State University, July 2012 to 2016

Division Head, Division of Liberal Arts, Indiana University – Purdue University Columbus, July 2011 to June 2012

Interim Director and Assistant Director, Honors Program, California University of Pennsylvania, July 2008 to June 2011

Chair, Department of History and Political Science, California University of Pennsylvania, July 2007 to June 2010

Interim Director, Women's Studies Program, California University of Pennsylvania, July 2005 to June 2007

RELEVANT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Fulbright-Robles-García Dissertation Fellow, Colegio de México, Mexico City, Mexico, 1999 to 2000

Instructor, Lakeland College, Milwaukee Extension, 2001 to 2002

Courses Taught:

Modern World History

Visiting Assistant Professor, Franklin College, 2002 to 2003

Courses Taught:

Modern World History

Historiography

Modern Latin America

Colonial British/U.S. Constitutional History

Associate Professor of History and Political Science, California University of Pennsylvania, 2004 to 2011 (Assistant Professor 2004 to 2009)

Courses Designed and Taught:

Gender in Latin America

Latin American Cultural History

Conquest of the Americas

Global Transitions to 1300

World Environmental History

Modern Asian Cultural History

The 1930s

Deindustrialization and Poverty

Courses Taught:

Modern Latin American History

Anatomy of a Dictatorship

Historiography

Ancient World History

Modern World History

Race and Ethnicity in U.S. History

Introduction to Political Science

Introduction to Women's Studies

History Capstone Seminar

20th Century U.S. Foreign Policy

First-Year Seminar

History of Sport in America

Honors Thesis

Associate Professor of History and Political Science, Indiana University – Purdue University Columbus, 2011 to 2012

Courses Taught:

History of Colonial Mexico
U.S. History to 1877
Politics of U.S. Foreign Policy

Professor of History and Political Science, Governors State University, 2012 to Present

Courses Taught:

Latin American Politics
Hispanic Experience in the United States
Mao's China
Ethnic History of Chicago (First Year Seminar)
Beliefs and Believers
U.S. History Since 1877
War, Trauma, and the Humanities
Performing Identity: Native American Show Indians (First Year Seminar)

PUBLICATIONS

University Press Books

-Transnational Indians in the North American West, co-edited with Lissa Confer and Laura Tuennerman, Texas A&M University Press, Connecting the Greater West, series editor, Sterling Evans, Fall 2015.

-At the Border of Empires: The Tohono O'odham, Gender and Assimilation, 1880-1934, with Laura Tuennerman, University of Arizona Press, 2013. [Named a Southwest Book of the Year by the Arizona Historical Society and the Pima County Library]

-Smugglers, Brothels, and Twine: Historical Perspectives on Contraband and Vice in North America's Borderlands, edited with Elaine Carey, University of Arizona Press, 2011.

-From Many, One: Indians, Peasants, Borders, and Education in Callista Mexico (1924-1935), University of Calgary Press, 2009, Christon Archer, series editor.

Refereed Journal Articles and Book Chapters

-“Bilingual, Bicultural Education Along the U.S.-Mexico Borderlands: The Case of Mexican Frontier Schools, 1928-1935,” in Education in the Borderlands: Promises, Utopias, and Realities, Forthcoming.

-“Aliens Addicting Us: Immigration and Drug Control Policy: A Historical Perspective,” with Elaine Carey, in The Routledge Handbook of Immigration and Crime, Holly Ventura Miller and Anthony Peguero, eds., Forthcoming.

- “Rural and Popular Education in Modern Latin America,” in The Routledge History of Latin American Culture, Carlos Salomon, ed., with Antonio Espinoza, 2018
- ““Drug Smuggling and Automated Borders: A Losing Battle of Escalation or State/Non-State Symbiosis,” with Elaine Carey, in The Political Economy of Robots: Prospects for Peace and Prosperity in the Automated 21st Century, Ryan Kiggins, ed., Palgrave Macmillan, 2018.
- “Two Tales of the Conquest of Seriland,” in Transnational Indians in the North American West, Texas A&M University Press, Connecting the Greater West, series editor, Sterling Evans, Fall 2015.
- “Introduction: Transnational Indians in the North American West,” with Gary Van Valen, in Transnational Indians in the North American West, Texas A&M University Press, Connecting the Greater West, series editor, Sterling Evans, Fall 2015.
- “Just Say No to Drugs: Mexico’s War on Alcohol in Ciudad Juárez during Prohibition,” Criminal Justice and Law Enforcement Annual: Global Perspectives, Volume 1, (2012)
- “Introduction: Transnational Flows of Contraband and Vice in North America,” with Elaine Carey, in Smugglers, Brothels, and Twine: Historical Perspectives on Contraband and Vice in North America’s Borderlands, University of Arizona Press, 2011.
- “Official Government Discourses about Vice and Deviance: the Early 20th Century Tohono O’odham,” with Laura Tuennerman, in Smugglers, Brothels, and Twine: Historical Perspectives on Contraband and Vice in North America’s Borderlands, University of Arizona Press, 2011.
- “Explaining Oil Nationalization in Latin America: Economics and Political Ideology,” with Scott Morgenstern and Ruben Berrios, Review of International Political Economy, Volume 18, Issue 5, December 2011.
- “Los vicios trasnacionales de los Tohono o’odham a principios del siglo XX,” with Laura Tuennerman, in En la encrucijada. Historia, marginalidad y delito en América Latina y los Estados Unidos de Norteamérica, siglos XIX y XX, University of Guadalajara, 2010, Jorge Alberto Truillo Bretón, editor.
- “Frontier Masculinity, Femininity, and the Ideological Cleansing of Borderlands Teachers, 1924-1935,” New Mexico Historical Review, 85:2 (Spring 2010), 155-178.
- “Forging Identity: Mexican Federal Frontier Schools, 1924-1935,” New Mexico Historical Review 80:2 (Spring 2005), 163-88.
- “Federalization of Education in Chihuahua,” Paedagogica Historica 41:3 (June 2005), 357-75.
- “The Failed Assimilation of the Tarahumara in Postrevolutionary Mexico,” Journal of the Southwest 45:3 (Autumn 2003), 411-35.

Other Publications

- “El Chapo: Negocio y Estrategia,” Contratiempo, Vol. 130 (Spring 2016): 5, with Elaine Carey.

- “Toward a New Drug History of Latin America,” commentary with Elaine Carey, Hispanic American Historical Review, <http://hahr-online.com/toward-a-new-drug-history-of-latin-america/>
- “The Attempted Eradication of Mexican Kickapoo Culture,” World History Bulletin, 30:2 (Fall 2014): 26-27.
- “Commentary: New Approaches to Transnational Crime and the Law,” Homeland Security Review: A Journal for the Institute of Law and Public Policy, 6:3 (Summer 2012): 171-174.
- World History Bulletin* 27:3 (Fall 2011), special issue on Transnational Crime in World History, edited with Elaine Carey.
- “The Urbanization of the Tohono O’odham: Using Vice, Crime, and Sexuality to Explore Cultural Interaction and Assimilation,” in World History Bulletin 27:3 (Fall 2011), with Laura Tuennerman.
- Proceedings of the Annual Intersections: Undergraduate Research Conference*, edited with Philip J. Harold and Monica M. VanDieren (Spring 2010 and 2011).
- “Historica política de México en los años veinte: petróleo, ejército y educación: Consulta de los archivos Calles-Torreblanca por académicos de la Universidad de Nuevo México,” with Linda B. Hall, Robert Carriedo, and Joseph Lenti, in Plutarco Elías Calles y Fernando Torreblanca: Un ejemplo de la importancia de los archivos privados en la historiografía de México, Fideicomiso Archivos Plutarco Elías Calles y Fernando Torreblanca, 2009, Norma Mereles de Ogarrio, editor.
- Journal of the West* 48:3 (Summer 2009), special issue on American Indians and the Borderlands of the West, edited with Laura Tuennerman.
- “Introduction: American Indians and the Borderlands of the West,” in Journal of the West 48:3 (Summer 2009), 9-11, with Laura Tuennerman.
- “He Don’t Show Us Much About Farming’: Tohono O’odham Agency and Agricultural Priorities, 1910-1940,” in Journal of the West 48:3 (Summer 2009), 20-25, with Laura Tuennerman.
- “Engagement or Isolation: Latin America’s Populist Left and the United States,” Harvard International Review, commentary, with Scott Morgenstern, November 2, 2006, <http://hir.harvard.edu/articles/1461/>
- “Pancho Villa: The Twice-Made Bandit,” in Negotiation and Conflict: Essays in United States and Mexican History, Kathleen P. Chamberlain and Jonathan Ablard, eds., Occasional Papers, University of New Mexico, Center for the American West, No. 14, 1999.